Amendment proposed by Mr. Frick:

No. 19—"After Section 18 of the printed Bill add a new section to be known as Section 19 and to read as follows:

'Section 19. And be it further enacted, That at the general election to be held in this State on November 6, 1917, this Act shall be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of the State for their approval or disapproval. Upon each of the ballots used at said election throughout the State there shall be printed in a separate column the title of this Act, and underneath said title there shall be printed on separate lines, with a space opposite for the voter's mark, the words "For Baltimore City Extension" and "Against Baltimore City Extension," in a manner similar to that in which constitutional amendments are submitted. The votes cast for Baltimore city extension and against Baltimore city extension, respectively, shall be returned to the Governor in the manner prescribed with respect to proposed amendments to the Constitution, and the Governor shall proclaim the result of the election; and if it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast upon this Act were for Baltimore city extension the Governor shall, by his proclamation, declare that this Act, having received a majority of the votes cast thereon, has been approved by the people of Maryland, and thereupon this Act shall go into effect. But if a majority of the votes cast as said election upon this Act throughout the State shall have been cast against Baltimore city extension, and the Governor, by his proclamation, shall so declare, then this Act shall not go into effect.'

Amendments to Amendment No. 19, proposed by Mr. Du-vall:

"Amend the title as follows: strike out the period after the words 'Anne Arundel county,' in said title, and in lieu thereof insert the following: 'and providing for submitting the question of such extension to the qualified voters of Baltimore and Anne Arundel counties.'"

"After the word 'that,' in line 2, Section 1, page 1, add the following: 'if a majority of the persons residing within that portion of the territory proposed by this Act to be annexed, embraced within the limits of Baltimore county, voting at the election hereinafter provided for, shall vote in favor of city
